

Safer places of Worship

Ladders

Ladders used for general maintenance should preferably be stored within the building. If they have to be left outside, they should be padlocked to fixtures or rawlbolted to a solid wall.

Fixed ladders should have the first rung well above the height of an average person. A section of the ladder for at least 5 feet should be protected by a padlocked hinged metal cover or be removed.