

Safer places of Worship

Register / Records

Generally speaking, places of worship are unsuitable for the storage of ancient documents. Apart from the crime prevention considerations, there is the question of preserving against decay, wear and damage.

Therefore, you are strongly recommended to examine the need to retain any original document within the building.