

Safer places of Worship

Drainage

Any water penetrating the walls of the building may cause rotting of timbers and erosion of walls. To avoid such extensive damage, gutters, downpipes and valleys must be cleared at least every six months. Snow and ice should be cleared from valleys and the tower roof during wintry conditions. Ensure that water drains away from the foundations.

